

Brad Armstrong

FSSA, MAAA
Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Brad is an actuary with the Indianapolis office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2009.

EXPERIENCE

Brad has substantial experience in financial forecasting, reporting, rate-setting, and policy impact analysis for Medicaid populations.

He has performed analyses for Medicaid budget forecasting, Medicaid managed care rate settings, Medicaid long-term care programs, Medicaid risk scoring, Medicaid waiver cost effectiveness, and pharmaceutical marketing research.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Member, American Academy of Actuaries (MAAA), 2013
- Fellow, Society of Actuaries (FSA), 2015

EDUCATION

BA (summa cum laude), Economics, Wabash College

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Speaker, Society of Actuaries Health Meeting, June 2015

AFFILIATIONS

- Society of Actuaries Health Section
- Society of Actuaries Medicaid Subgroup

PUBLICATIONS

Calibrating Risk Score Model with Partial Credibility, July 2, 2015. Appeared in July 2015 issue of the "Forecasting and Futurism" section newsletter published by the Society of Actuaries

