

Andrew Bourg

FSA, MAAA
Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Andrew Bourg is an actuary with the Chicago-Milwaukee Health Practice of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2014.

EXPERIENCE

Andrew's primary areas of expertise are pricing, financial forecasting, and reserving for commercial health insurers. He has also assisted several health plans with their Medicare Advantage Parts C and D bid submissions. Other clients have included policy organizations, mid- to large-size employers, and Consumer Operated and Oriented Plans (CO-OPs).

Examples of Andrew's expertise include the following:

- Developing financial projections for a variety of health plans
- Assisting health plans with Affordable Care Act (ACA) individual and small group pricing and filing
- Medicare Advantage bid submissions for special needs populations
- Researching and analyzing benefit values under the ACA
- Performing due diligence and appraisal valuation for mergers and acquisitions
- Estimating claim liabilities for commercial insurers and employers

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

- Co-Author, The impact of the $0 individual mandate penalty, Milliman Insight, June 2018.
- Co-Author, Which plan is best for me? Consumer transparency issues in an evolving individual health insurance market, Milliman Insight, April 2017.
- Presenter at multiple Milliman Health Consultant Forums regarding topics related to health care reform, financial reporting, ACA rate filings, and Milliman's MedInsight products.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Fellow, Society of Actuaries
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

EDUCATION

BS, Economics, cum laude, University of Texas - Dallas

