

Adam L. Laurin

FSA, MAAA
Consulting Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Adam is a consulting actuary with the Milwaukee office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2010 after working as an actuary for a national publicly traded health insurance corporation for five years.

EXPERIENCE

Adam primarily focuses on the provider market, employer-sponsored insurance, and managed Medicaid programs.

He provides a wide array of consulting services to providers, which include negotiation support and modeling of shared risk arrangements, development of narrow network products, utilization and cost benchmarking, and fee schedule analysis.

Adam has assisted public and private employers with COBRA rate development, budget projections, RDS attestation, Medicare Part D creditable coverage testing, GASB retiree medical projections, and the development of long-term sustainability strategies.

Adam also has experience in the Medicaid market, serving as a consultant to state Medicaid programs, managed care organizations, and providers seeking to share risk for the Medicaid population.

Adam has also worked with a variety of other clients including insurance companies, HMOs, pharmacy benefit managers, and Taft-Hartley trusts.
