

Neha Taneja

BSc
Consultant

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Neha is a healthcare consultant at Milliman's New Delhi office. She joined the firm as an actuarial analyst in 2012. Her areas of expertise include pricing, experience reporting, and reserving.

EXPERIENCE

Neha has worked extensively on the rating of Medicare plans on behalf of various insurers and HMOs for the submission to the U.S. Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. She also has been involved with various health data analysis and pricing assignments in the Middle East and the United Kingdom.

Before joining Milliman, Neha worked as an actuarial analyst at OptumInsight, part of UnitedHealthGroup, India, where she was involved in pricing, reserving, and experience reporting for different U.S. health insurers. She was also involved in the development of technical specifications for reporting measures for U.S. health insurers in compliance with technical instructions released by the U.S. government.
