

Stephen A. White

FSA, MAAA, EA
President, CEO

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Steve is president and chief executive officer of Milliman. He joined the firm in 1985.

EXPERIENCE

Steve assumed his current responsibilities in September 2012. As a consulting actuary, his area of expertise is the retirement field, with particular emphasis on pension administration outsourcing services and actuarial services for large- and medium-sized corporate clients and Taft-Hartley plans.

Steve directed pension administration outsourcing services for single-employer retirement plans. He managed the implementation of these services for several large clients, and was actively involved in defining procedures and system requirements for this work, both firm-wide and for the Seattle office.

Steve served as the consulting actuary for several Taft-Hartley pension plans. Steve also assisted clients with the design of defined benefit and defined contribution plans, negotiations on pension plan changes, the valuation of defined benefit plans, experience studies, asset/liability projection studies, and participant communications.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Fellow, Society of Actuaries
- Enrolled Actuary under ERISA
- Member, American Academy of Actuaries

AFFILIATIONS

- Steve previously served as a board member of the Western Pension and Benefits Conference, and as chairperson for the Western Pension and Benefits Conference's annual meeting and spring seminar.
- He participates in workshops and meetings of both the Society of Actuaries and local professional organizations.
- He has served on the Society of Actuaries Examination Committee.

EDUCATION

- BA (magna cum laude), Mathematics, University of Notre Dame

